Captured After Long Chase By posse, Tuesday

W. Alexander, 19 year old, was captured by a posse of about 20 men, Tuesday afternoon, after a chase of approximately two weeks, in the Monroe Frizzell home near Palma, a crime he is accused of perpetrating.

The Frizzell home was burglarized, Sheriff Volney Brien said, about two weeks ago, a rifle and a 38 Smith and Wesson Special were stolen and a piggy bank was robbed.

James Stafford, of Mississippi, is being held in the Marshall County jail on a charge of assault with intent to kill, according to Sheriff Volney Brien.

Stafford is accused of beating Francis Franklin Blackwell, of Paducah, Tenn., and inflicting head injuries, broken ribs, lacerations in chest and possible internal injuries. The victim was taken to the hospital by emergency treatment.

Both men are migratory berry pickers. Stafford was arrested by a posse Tuesday afternoon following an all day chase by County Sheriff Volney Brien and Paducah State Troopers. The posse was flushed in a heavy wooded area near Elva when the brush in the thicket, he was found hiding in a pile of brush and was almost stepped on by officers, they said.

Sheriff Volney Brien, deputies Jim Allen, Rudd and Prentiss, and Paducah State Troopers, "Buck" Brien, chased Stafford for hours over various parts of the county, trooper radioed for other troopers to join the chase and three responded immediately. When caught, Stafford admitted his guilt but did not implicate another who had been held for questioning, Sheriff Brien said.

Blackwell staggered up to the Campbell's grocery on the Monsonia Highway early Tuesday morning in what was described as a bloody, very confused state, he was brought to the office of Dr. McClain and the officers immediately began the chase which brought the accused to bay in the Elva woods.

Stafford claims that Blackwell had a fight the night before with another man and that he and Blackwell had a fight Tuesday morning, Sheriff Brien said.

Color Film Of Big Singing To Be Released

Color films of "Big Singing 1950" may be shown on slides to hundreds of people in the near future.

Rayburn Watkins, co-owner of the Tribune, made arrangements with Armstrong Associates to take kodachrome pictures for their library of slides, the largest in existence portraying historic Kentucky towns, scenes, and their principal events.

Mr. J. W. Armstrong, Jr., said the slides will be held for use in compiling "slide movies" for groups, industries and government organizations interested in presenting visually the attractiveness of Kentucky.

Tape recordings of the Old Southern Harmony melodies probably will be along with the commentary, he said. The Library of Congress has recordings of Big Singing music, and the local Jaycees and Radio Station WPAD have tape recordings.

Mr. Armstrong cancelled previous arrangements to come to Benton with Watkins, and performed this service for the cost of the materials expended, which were bought by 14 Benton businessmen.

He also took outdoor crowd shots and color films of the memorial service, which may be included in the Armstrong "events" series.

The film has been given a contract by the State of Kentucky to prepare "slide movies" and colored movies of the State Parks.

Fifteen States On Register Of Visitors Sunday

The sixty-seventh annual Big Singing Day held in Benton on the fourth Sunday in May drew visitors from fifteen states, Canada and England this year. Frank Grubbs, of Albuquerque, New Mexico was awarded a copy of the original edition of the Old Southern Harmony book. The award was made to him as the one participating in the actual singing who came the farthest distance for that purpose. The book is considered a treasure as it had been used by Mrs. Ethel Fiser at every Big Singing since 1884.

Marion Davis, the English girl given wide publicity for having saved for years in order to make a trip to America to visit the city of Paducah, merely because she saw the name on a map and became intrigued, was a visitor at Big Singing and was introduced by chairman H. H. Lovett. Mr. Lovett also made the presentation of the book to Mr. Grubbs.

Two visitors from Canada were registered. They were Grace Kockler of Red Deer, Canada and Phyllis Blackwell of Alberta.

States represented by those registering were New Mexico, Kansas, Louisiana, Washington, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Texas, Oklahoma, Michigan, Alabama, Missouri, Arkansas, Indiana, Tennessee and Illinois, besides those coming from all parts of Kentucky.

A booth was operated on the court house lawn by the Benton Rotary Club which sold sandwiches and cold drinks, other booths selling balloons, candy, colored ice, etc., lined the corner of the court lawn on the twelfth street side.

Aside from the actual singing of the Old Southern Harmony songs, the homecoming aspect is the big feature of the day. Many old friends got together who had not seen or heard of each other since the last Big Singing Day.

The Louisville Courier-Journal will carry a feature story on the Day in its Rotogravure section Sunday. Benton's own Joe Creason and with pictures taken by Tom Miller of that paper's staff.

Radio Station WPAD broadcast the afternoon session of the Singing and the English girl, Miss Marion Davis, was interviewed during this broadcast.

No official estimate was made of the size of the crowd in attendance, however, guesses ranged all the way from 5000 to 8000, and all agreed it was the largest since World War II.

Immediately following the Big Singing, the Marshall County Veterans of Foreign Wars held their annual Memorial Services for Marshall County men who gave their lives in defense of their country. Attorney Earl T. Osborne delivered the Memorial Address and the 11th Airborne Division band from Camp Campbell furnished music. A firing squad made up of members of the local VFW post did the honors to the fallen heroes.

White crosses bearing the names of Marshall County men lost in war were placed on the court house lawn simulating a military cemetery and were left there through Tuesday, Decoration Day. Many flowers were placed at the wreaths by parents and friends of the men.

Pastor Gets Whiskey Runners

Rev. H. Williams Sees Men Hiding Liquor In Weeds

Dan McBride and Horace Lee Nash were convicted in City court Wednesday on a charge of transporting illegal whiskey in local option territory. These two men were caught due to a minister being called.

to the neighborhood in which they were unloading the liquor and he arrived in time to see them, recognized them and got the license number of their car. Rev. Harry Williams, pastor of the Benton First Methodist Church, had been called to an area on a back street off the old Mayfield Road, Tuesday, when he drove up he saw the two men placing some whiskey in a patch of weeds, recognized them and got their car license number. He loaded the whiskey in his car and brought it to the police and reported what he had seen.

The men were arrested and on Wednesday were convicted with McBride drawing the maximum penalty of $100 and 60 days in jail, while Nash drew $100 fine and 30 days in jail.

The irony of their capture, to the men caught, was the fact the minister who caused their capture had been called to the neighborhood in regard to another liquor case in which they were not involved.

Around The Square

A man who works hard and keeps at it doesn't notice the passing of time. Jim Morgan, the master of the brush, is a living example of that. He will round out fifty years of house painting the middle of June. Nothing is being said about his age, but his actions prove him to be a young man.

Boy, what a church attendance it would mean, if the church pews were just placed on the lake shore some Sunday morning!

A. D. Jones, manager of Harvey's Cafe, learned that movies are sometimes made realistic, just as advertised. At the Benton Theatre showing of "Battleground" which was the story of the 101st Airborne Division in the Battle of the Bulge during World War II, he had a chance to relive the worst moments of his life.

—he was a member of that outfit and was in that particular engagement. He says real names of fellows in the outfit were used in the movie, and it was so true to the situation that he could not take it, had to get up and leave the theatre before the picture was finished.

Right snazzy—those new aluminum awnings at Clark Hunt's Drive-In Market.

Did that excellently executed Memorial Service Sunday strike a serious note with you? It did with all we combat veterans—made us remember men who were right beside us when they made the supreme sacrifice, we honor them reverently as is humanly possible and humbly offer them our thanks.

The best sign for fishermen that we know of—if B. L. Trevathan is not doing any good at any certain location, you better hunt another place to fish.

HOME EC WORK DESCRIBED BY CALVERT GROUP

Home Economics is the only vocational subject offered in Marshall County for high school girls.

Each school offers two years of Home Ec. as all homemakers know, this course would not be complete if only cooking and sewing were taught. Instead, the curriculum must include training along such lines as Home Care of the sick, clothing, food, child care and training, management of time, energy and money, housing and relationship.

To make the things learned in home economics practice at their home, doing the things learned at school. Then they go farther to plan and carry out projects at home based upon the things learned in class. A number of home projects are carried on at home during the school year.

At Calvert School this year Miss Janette Herndon, a freshman, carried out the best project, the written report of which will be sent to the state office of vocational education at Frankfort. She planned and prepared breakfast three times. Each girl also planned and carried out a much larger project to be done during the summer months. Following is a list of the project chosen by the Calvert City Home Ec. class—the girls are working on these various projects now.

Redecorating porch and lawn furniture — Doris Butler and Mary Joyce Vickers

Selecting and making My Summer Wardrobe — Kiv Cox, Vellma Jo Cox, Betty Devine, Linda Doyle, Mayme Ruth Ellington, Betty Jo Greer, Judith Foust, Freda Mae Ford, Bobbie Jean Freeman, Sarah and Doris Gregory, Wanda Harris, Betty Lou Lee, Joyce Riley, and V. A. Wilson

Caring for and repairing summer garments and making new garments — Betty Culp and Lanette Howard

Selecting and making curtains for the home — Mary Sue Donohoo

Repairing summer clothes and making winter clothes — Amelia Donohoo, Melba Harper and Sylvia Stice

Arranging plants and tending flowers for the yard at home — Thelma Doyle

Improving "My Personality" — Janette Herndon

Providing a storage space for my winter clothing — Mariene Madden

Improving the yard — Louise Morrison, Maile Evelyn Williams

Home economics teachers have extended employment, one month after school closes in the spring to supervise projects such as these. They are also available to help homemakers with any of their problems and especially those adult classes taught by the Home Ec. teachers during the school year at each high school.

Around the County Farm Front

By J. Homer Miller

It looks like our berry growers will have to find new picking facilities if we are to get our berries picked in time. A few dollars invested in a few more pickers would be a situation on a number of farms.

CARMEL BYERS plowed up his ladino clover in a cow die from blight and I was afraid of it. This year we have had enough good improved pasture.

DO YOU WANT to buy some good registered stock? The 5th Annual Jersey Cattle Club sale will be held at Fair Grounds Saturday (tomorrow), June 10. You might be interested in looking them over.

HOLLAND HENTON reports a good crop of corn for the year. "I fertilized heavy and gave it plenty of water on good ground and spread." Weather unfavorable—too cold and wet early—too hot and dry later.

THE MARSHALL COUNTY FAIR is progressing but needs more members. If you are not a life member, send your membership to Errett Starks, Treasurer, Marshall County.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 4-H MEMBERS who entered this county in Paducah last week. They won Blue ribbon winners Linda Doyle, Cassie Gatlin, Clothing Judging; Gerald Wiles, Individual Demonstration; Red ribbon winners Carol Ruth, Girls' Demonstration; Paul Blagg and Tai Lamb, Girls' Demonstration; White ribbon winners Jackie Green, McNeely, Contour Cultivation.

SUCH HEAT CONTROL — Imagine, you can tune with a "whistling Tea Kettle". That's quickly High-Power burners respond to control from searing heat to low simmer in 1/2 minute. SPOTLESSLY CLEAN — The High-Power changes oil to vapor which is completely condensed. ### Aurora:

By Ukley McNeely

(Editor's note: Eukley McNeely, Tribune correspondent for the Aurora community gives here an excellent word picture of what may have been in the minds of many when they learned that the cigar factory was closing down. He says it was not a dream, just a thought that came to him.)

Several attended the funeral service of the cigar factory. The Bible reading was by the County Judge, Holland Rose. The pallbearers were Dale LeNeave, Roy Boyd, Mark Clayton, Louis Lilly, Thomas Morgan, Rip Fiser, Hue Thompson, Otto Cann, Cecil Houser, Volney Brien, Ruby Bailey and Will Kuykendall.

The flowers were furnished by Ray Linn and the farewell song was sung by Walker Myers "Until We Meet Again". The closing prayer was by H. H. Lovett Jr.

Homemakers Club

The Marshall County Homemakers will have clothing on their major project next year. The clothing specialist from the University of Kentucky will give six lessons in simple clothing construction. Each homemaker will make a cotton dress during the lessons.

Tobacco Row

By Holmes Ellis

Wet weather a late spring, scarcity of plants and setting tobacco without a season has made farm work very difficult this year. Reports indicate that the crop is nearly two weeks later than usual - and if in fact a full crop is set out. Discased plants have added to the worries of growers.

Sometimes I am convinced that farming offers more problems than other walks of life. A late spring, requiring work around the clock, a yearling with bloat, cholera in the hogs or the machinery breaks down - all this, and sometimes the same day. Add hot weather and locusts buzzing and you have the ingredients that season farm life.

The Association has recently received information from the Tobacco Branch, Commodity Credit Corporation, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. that two changes in the 1950 loan program for dark tobacco will be made as follows:

The first relates to the loan rate on tobacco over 24 inches long (size 46). For a number of years size 46 tobacco has carried the same loan rate as tobacco 20 to 24 inches long (size 45). In recent years, however, price patterns have indicated that size 46 tobacco is of relatively less value than size 45. Accordingly, it is expected that in establishing the loan rates for the 1950 crop, the rate for size 46 will in most cases be lower than the rate for size 45.

The second change relates to fire-cured type of tobacco which has been air-cured and offered for sale on the one-sucker market under the dark-sucker type tobacco quota. This air-cured market was marked "BL" (Broadleaf) by U. S. Inspector last year and the support price was the same as one-sucker tobacco.

For the 1950 crop and thereafter, it is expected that tobacco carrying the special factor "BL" will be eligible for price support only at a rate of 20% less than the current one-sucker grade. This is the same differential applying to one-sucker type tobacco which has been fire-cured and is marked "OS" (one-sucker).

For the past several years our advance schedule has included two prices for leaf grades based on length. For the crop this year there will be three prices, one for 44, 45, and 46 inch lengths for the leaf.

"But Look What's Below the Surface!"

During the past two weeks we have sampled 35 hogheads for the Edward J. O'Brien Co. the firm making the selections for the French Government. It now appears that we may sell them approximately one million pounds. We continue to make small sales to the trade of dark-fired tobacco on hand, sales have not kept pace with our receipts.

Soil Conservation Notes

Soil Conservation Service
By Herbert Anerson

Supervisors from ten counties of the First Congressional District met last Friday at the Soil Conservation Service Nursery in Paducah. Sam Gold, Renloe Rudolph, and Homer Chester were present from Marshall County.

The purpose of the meeting was to study grasses and legumes which are being grown for seed production. The group was told that these seed were allotted free to farmers co-operating with the Soil Conservation District as a means of increasing the quantity of scarce seeds of plants especially adapted to erosion control purposes.

L. J. Rickman, Sharpe, says, "I have 32 Herefords now and want to increase to 50 as soon as I get enough."

Preventing soil erosion is much easier when a thick grass legume sod is applied. Rickman plans to put all his land in grass except about 15 acres of deep well drained bottom land which is in capability class on this land can be row cropped each year without danger from erosion. Fertility needs to be maintained by fertilizer, manure and use of winter cover crops.

Making Strawberry Preserves Easy With Right Recipe

Strawberry Preserves In making any preserves as jelly on rule should be followed. Use a small amount of fruit or fruit juice at a time. Another rule for strawberry preserves is to let the preserves stand until cool before packing in containers. In this way the berries will not rise to the top of the container.

Strawberry Preserves 2 cups strawberries, 1 1/4 cup water, 2 cups sugar. Make a syrup by boiling 1 cup of sugar and the water together. Add 1 cup of berries, let boil. Add 1 cup sugar let boil, add 1 cup of berries. Boil 8-10 minutes. Remove from stove cover kettle and let cool. Pack in a shallow pan and let stand overnight. Place berries carefully in sterilized jars. Reheat the syrup to boiling point and pour over preserves. Partially seal and process 15 to 20 minutes in water bath. Seal and store in a cool place.

Strawberry Preserves Using Lemon Juice Two pounds capped berries, 4 tablespoons sugar. Mix berries with sugar. Let stand 3 or 4 hours. Place over very low heat until simmering point is reached. Add lemon juice. Boil rapidly from 10 to 12 minutes for until berries are clear and syrup thick. Cover and let stand overnight. Packs cold in hot jars. Process 15 minutes at simmering.

Strawberries should be frozen, preserved or canned for winter use. Freezing is a quite way to put up strawberries. Dry sugar or a medium syrup can be used with either whole or sliced strawberries. However dry sugar with the sliced berries and sugar syrup with the whole berries is recommended. Preparation: Hull, wash in cold water, and drain. Strawberries may be packed whole or sliced. For the dry sugar pack, sliced (lengthwise) or whole berries are mixed with granulated sugar in the proportions of 4 to 5 parts, by weight, of berries to 1 part of sugar. For the syrup pack, whole or sliced, berries are placed in suitable containers—waxed cups, glass jars or cellophane bags—and just covered with medium syrup. Four cups of sugar to 4 cups of water.

For canning mix 1 quart of berries 1 cup of sugar and 2 T of strawberry juice bring to boil, let set over night. Pack in jars, process 20 minutes in water bath. Strawberries do not make an attractive canned product. However, they may be used in fruit punch.

With SUNSHINE, TIME and PROTECTION these TREE FACTORIES CAN PRODUCE ALMOST Anything!

THE trees of America's 630 MILLION ACRES of forest land are going to be the source of thousands of new science-created articles before long... that's why the forest industries are seeking to place their timber lands on a basis of continuous crops... that's why many forests are now managed so that they will yield successive crops without destruction of the woods.

Already we produce paper, rayon, chemicals, plastics, textiles, and insulation from our forests. These are only a pre-view of things to come.

Great industries can be built on the utilization in new forms of inexpensive, abundant wood, because trees are a crop. With the kind of help nature is now receiving through the scientific management of the forest industries, the future of these new industries is secure.

This company has placed its properties on a basis of permanent operation.

Treas Lumber Co.

Kentucky

Two Latin words, rich in sentiment! To some they awaken memories of ivy-covered halls. But to many more they recall happy days in the old country schoolhouse.

Literally, they mean fostering mother. And that's what a school becomes, a third parent, preparing her children for life.

But all of us need to realize still another "fostering" parent, The Church—the earthly tutor who reveals to men the love of the Heavenly Father.

We never graduate from the Church! Sometimes we play hooky for a while. But sooner or later most of us discover that there is no substitute for the spiritual "upbringing" the Church provides.

And that discovery is the most thrilling commencement in life, for with it begins man's achievement of the highest goals in living.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. The strong Church, neither democracy nor plutocracy can survive. There are four sound reasons every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) His own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) The sake of his community and nation. (4) The sake of the Church itself, which needs men and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Calvert City Club Names Two Girls To State Meeting

Misses Bobbie Jean Freeman and Lanette Howard have been chosen by the Calvert City Chapter of Future Homemakers of America to attend the annual state meeting to be held at Bowling Green, June 2-4. This organization for home economics students was formed in June 1945, since that time it has grown rapidly and now is a strong organization locally, state-wide and nationally. The second national meeting is to be held at Kansas City late in June. District meetings are held twice a year, giving every member an opportunity to attend. Only two members, along with their sponsor, from each chapter may attend the state meeting. Delegates to the state meeting are chosen on the basis of interest and enthusiasm in the chapter and usefulness to it. The four degrees of achievement are Junior Homemaker and Chapter Homemaker on the chapter level, State Homemaker, to be conferred at the state meeting and the American Homemaker to be conferred at the national meet. Three members of the Calvert City Chapter to earn the Junior Homemaker this year were Virginia Wilson, Lanette Howard and Bobbie Jean Freeman. Those to earn the chapter homemaker were Lanette Howard and Bobbie Jean Freeman.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
